Today, the Château de Santenay is the largest winery in the Côte de Beaune. They own more than 90 ha of vineyards which are renowned for the character of their wines, such as Aloxe Corton, Beaune 1er Cru, Pommard, Clos de Vougeot, Mercrey, etc. They are the most important owner of Mercrey. The « cuvée » carefully refined by the Château allows to realize the roundness and the best balance of the elements of this wine.

Tasting notes

Its color is ruby, brilliant. The nose is open and complex. Spices - cloves - mix with notes of fresh red fruits. The oak flavors that accompanies it is very delicate. The palate is remarkable for its balance, the quality of its silky tannins. A superb elegant ensemble.

Food pairing

Grilled red meats, game or various cheese.

Serving temperature

15-16°C
